

Here IS HOW

YOU GET READY FOR LIFE AFTER UB.

→ CONGRATULATIONS NEW GRADUATE!

Here's your checklist to help you get organized.

- ❑ Keep your @buffalo email account active via Gmail by logging in every 90 days.
- ❑ Visit your online profile on UB Connect to make updates, manage privacy settings and email preferences, and update your address.
- ❑ Create your profile on the UB Career Connector Network to access your alumni-powered global network.
- ❑ Grow personally and professionally with free Webinar Wednesdays.
- ❑ Let UB help you find a job with Bullseye powered by Handshake, a virtual tool to connect employers with UB alumni for jobs, internships and networking opportunities.
- ❑ Attend a UB alumni event. With 22 chapters around the world, virtual events, plus Homecoming and Family Weekend in October, there are many ways to meet fellow alumni.
- ❑ Follow UB on social media.
- ❑ Ready to volunteer? We have a role for you!
- ❑ Read At Buffalo, your quarterly alumni magazine. As a new graduate, you'll receive your first copy in December, so make sure we have your correct address. It's also available online.
- ❑ Submit a class note to UB so other graduates know what you're up to via UB Connect.
- ❑ Visit and bookmark buffalo.edu/alumni to get ready for life after UB!
