University at Buffalo
University Libraries

New Faculty Academy
Schedule of Workshops
Spring 2020

All workshops will be held Fridays, in Room 310 Capen from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
starting on February 7, 2020

Focus Area: Scholarly Publishing

- February 7: What Journals Editors Want (Mr. Chris Hollister, Interim Head of Scholarly Communications)
- February 14: Choosing the Correct Journal – Impact Metrics, Predatory Publishers (Ms. Rose Orcutt, Architecture and Planning Librarian; Ms. Erin Rowley, Engineering Librarian/Head, Science and Engineering Library Services)
- February 21: Creating one standard author name using ORCID, tracking your citations, and automating updates from journals in your field (Cynthia Tysick, Head of Education Services)
- February 28: Create your UB research and publishing ePortfolio

End of month deliverables: ORCID id created, research statement uploaded to your ePortfolio, reflection post related to publishing/research goals

Focus Area: Data/Copyright Issues

- March 6: How to Comply with IRB Policies at UB (Mr. Chris Marks, UB Office of Research Compliance)
- March 13: Copyright & Scholarly Publishing (Ms. Karlen Chase, Scholarship Publishing Specialist)
- March 20: Data Management (Ms. Rachel Starry, Postdoctoral Fellowship in Data Curation for the Social Sciences)
- March 27: Write up a data management plan, begin an IRB protocol, or work on a publication or grant draft

End of month deliverables: Data management plan uploaded to your ePortfolio for a project you are either currently working on or intend to pursue.

Focus Area: Preparing Your Manuscript/Grant

- April 3:   What Grant Reviewers are looking for (TBD)
- April 10: Mechanics of Scholarly Writing (Professor Robert Adelman, UB Department of Sociology; Alex Reid, interim Director, UB Writing-in-the-Disciplines
- April 17: Revise your research statement to include what you have been working on this academic year, include what grants you might pursue and what publishers or conferences you might submit abstracts.
- April 24: Wrap up and discussion of NFA Showcase projects

End of month deliverables: Revised research statement uploaded to your ePortfolio and a reflective post on whether or not you have achieved your publishing/research goals.