

Writing and Publishing Track - UB Libraries

All workshops will be held Thursdays via Zoom 12 - 1 p.m.

Focus Area I: Scholarly Writing

- February 11: The mechanics of writing for publication
- February 18: Writing with collaborators (benefits & pitfalls)
- February 25: Choosing the best publisher - impact metrics, predatory publishers
- March 4: Writing group exercise (bring a piece of your writing to share)

Focus Area II: Grant Writing

- March 11: Finding grant opportunities, writing grant proposals
- March 18: Grant reviewer's panel on a compelling submission
- March 25: Grant revision exercise (go through real grant reviews and revise)

Focus Area III: Campus Resources & Support for Writing

- April 1: IRB policies at UB
- April 8: Creating and maintaining a data management plan
- April 15: Advice from a prolific UB scholar
- April 22: Academy roundup and final project discussion for showcase presentation

Final New Faculty Fellows Showcase & Celebration Event

- April 27: Provost welcome, project presentations, Vice Provost recognition

Deliverables:

At the end of the academy you will have: submitted one piece (in draft form) of your writing for peer-review, reviewed at least one colleague's work, revised a sample grant based on reviewer feedback, created either a protocol for IRB or a data management plan using DMPTool