The Canty Family Conference Room Naming

- Whereas SUNY Distinguished Professor of Medicine John M. Canty, Jr., MD '79, and Ann Marie Canty have been generous donors to, and active supporters of, the Jacobs School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences at the University at Buffalo; and
- whereas in 1981, two years after graduating from the Jacobs School, Dr. Canty joined UB's Department of Medicine as a cardiology fellow and instructor of medicine, where he became an accomplished translational cardiology researcher and educator; and
- whereas Dr. Canty has been recognized for his outstanding accomplishments with various honors including the Distinguished Alumnus Award (2008), the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Scholarship and Creative Activities (2010), and the Senior Clinician Scientist Award from the Department of Veterans Affairs (2020); and
- whereas Dr. Canty has dedicated his career to the Jacobs School by educating the next generation of physicians and researchers to advance cardiology research and care in Western New York and beyond; and
- whereas Dr. Canty and Mrs. Canty gratefully acknowledge the world-class education he received at UB, preparing him for a successful career with boundless opportunities; be it therefore
- resolved that in deep appreciation for the philanthropic commitment of Dr. Canty and Mrs. Canty, the UB Council hereby endorses the naming of The Canty Family Conference Room in the Clinical and Translational Research Center; and be it further
- resolved that this resolution be permanently entered into the records of the UB Council.
